But he's quite a hanger over
And he never seems to went.
—Courier-Journal.

A new time-card, with slight changes, has been arranged for the L. and N.

Thomas Snedegar, a well known tobacco dealer, is dead at Wyoming, Bath county, aged 62.

Rev. H. G. Turner, Pastor of the Methodist Church at Mt. Sterling is in the local option fight now on at Paris and in this city.

Will the fact of two inundations in one year of the Infirmary Farm, in consequence of floods in the Ohio river, be of any import in the matter of the Fiscal Court at its next meeting, in taking action in looking to the selection of a more healthful and suitable location for an up-to-date Infirmary and grounds? THE LEDGER hopes it will.

The Right Side of Paint

The practical painter says, there are two sides to every question, but the man who always uses Patton's Sun-Proof Paint both inside and outside is on the right side of the paint question.

PATTON'S SUN-PROOF PAINTS

New School Building!

Owing to the fact of the School Board's having bought the old Perkhouse (our warehouse) for the site for the new High School Building, we are obliged to move all our vehicles within the next 60 days; and we have figured that it would be better to sell them than to move, a storeroom in Maysville is pretty scarce just now, and besides it is very expensive to move four or five carloads of crated vehicles.

Therefore!

We are beginning today the most phenomenal sale of vehicles ever held in Maysville, and a word to the wise should be sufficient. "If you are contemplating the purchase of a rig of any kind, now is your opportunity."

Mike Brown

THE "SQUARE DEAL" MAN.

Colonel H. B. Bryson was down from Carlisle Saturday.

Henry Gifford of near Washington has sold and delivered yesterday his crop of 5,000 pounds of tobacco to Mr. Collins, Maysville, at 9 cents 'round.

Mrs. Lewis W. Burton, wife of the Bishop of the Diocese of Lexington, has completed a visit of two months to relatives on Farragut Square, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Joseph Toole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Toole of East Second street, Sixth Ward, has been sick for the past four weeks with typhoid fever.

Captain H. B. Daugherty, ba of the New Central Hotel, who has a genial smile and a hearty welcome for all who enter the portals of this popular house, is in Louisville for several days attending the State Meeting of the Hotel Men.

The present big flood in the Ohio river has proven the most enigmatical proposition that has confronted the erstwhile weather and river Prophets in this city during their born days. Ordinarily they would hit within a reasonable distance of the hull's eye; not so in this instance, it was either above, below or sideways of the center. All problematical deductions went askew and counted for naught. This morning, however, THE LEDGER can state without fear of contradiction, that the water has receded, and at this hour, 9:00 o'clock the gage actually marks 58.9 feet, having receded 3 tenths.

Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday there was little doing, only three offenders contributing grist to the mill.

Mira Jones, disorderly conduct, $4.90.

Carrie Milton, same offense, $4.90.

John Spencer, assault and battery, held to the Mason Circuit Court in the sum of $200 and in default was committed to jail.

WE OFFER YOU

Lots of nice things; but never have we offered you any article more certain to please you than our FERDELL SLICED PINEAPPLE . . .

We ask you to buy just one can. When you get anything here that pleases you, tell others; when you don't, tell us.

"ONE OF THE BEST ON THE ROAD."

"Si Plunkard" is a play combining both comedy and pathos in that way which has so often been spoken of as that "the laughter chases away the tears." A play to enjoy lasting popularity must possess these qualifications or else fail to long interest a fickle public. It is necessary to touch the strings of the human heart—a simple truthful story. This most successful rural drama will be presented here with Mr. J. C. Lewis in the title role. It is promised that it will be given in a superb manner by a company of unusual excellence. Si Plunkard will be seen at The Washington Thursday night. Watch for the funny parade by Simeon and his Farmer Band.

A Food Medicine

Chenoweth's Beet, Iron and Wine is more a food than a medicine, but it is food of an unusual kind.

It is food in the most easily assimilated form—all ready to slip into the blood and give you strength without taxing digestion. It does you good just as food does, but quicker, and if your stomach is weak it does you good just the same.

It's also a prompt, pleasant and effective tonic. New energy felt after the first few doses.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

THE STOMACH.

My but peoples' stomachs do cause a lot of trouble. I offered to wage some doctors in St. Paul, Minn., that one half of all sickness is caused by the stomach. After I assured them that my medicine did nothing but put the stomach in shape, and they had spent a day listening to what people who called on me had to say, they had to agree with me. They heard people come in and tell me that for years they had been near the grave with Bright's disease, or lung trouble, or kidney complaint and all manner of diseases and that the New Discovery had cured them. Of course these people were mistaken, it was nothing but their stomachs. As a matter of fact when the stomach gives us most everything else is thrown out of order too.

When a person feels tired and dull and despondent, is loosing flesh and don't sleep well, has a poor memory, a bad taste in the mouth, a coated tongue, and other troubles he's liable to believe a lot of things are the matter with him. Nine chances to one it's his stomach. I've seen Cooper's New Discovery bring back health to too many people in just this shape to believe anything else. Here's a letter about it:

"I suffered for a long time without knowing just what was the matter with me. I seldom felt like eating. I lost greatly in weight. My digestion was extremely poor and when I did eat I invariably suffered afterward. I was constipated and frequently suffered from nerve racking, violent headaches. When I heard of what the Cooper remedies were doing for others I resolved to try them."

"Relief came with the first bottle. My appetite and digestion improved rapidly.
I am no longer constipated nor do I have those dreadful headaches. I sleep well and am gain flesh." C. H. Powell, 13
Harrison Addition, Duluth, Minn.

We are selling immense quantities of these medicines and our customers express great satisfaction.

VALUE OF THE FAMILY BIBLE.

Will Be Hard to Get Historical Data If It Disappears.

Professor Frederick Starr, head of the anthropology department of the University of Chicago, in relating to his class some of his experiences in the Congo incidentally called attention to the fact that the old-fashioned family bible, with its birth and death records, was rapidly disappearing from homes in civilized countries.

"In not one-half the families to-day were we able to get the exact age and place of birth and other desired data," he said. "It is even more difficult to get such information in Africa.
I think if the Bible, or some such book as the old-fashioned Bible of the civilized home existed these historical facts would be the more easily learned, and of course the moral influence would be greater."

Professor Starr also called attention to the motto of the Congo Free State—"Labor and Progress." The motto, he said, was well known among the natives, young and old.

"It is notorious here that few Americans know the motto of their own country," concluded Professor Starr.

AQUATIC BATTLE IN MID RIVER

Between Two Dover Men—One Knocks out Enemy and Then Saves Him From Drowning.

The village of Dover comes to the front with another story which begins as a tragic encounter and ended rather oddly in the conqueror saving his enemy's life.

The Ohio river at Dover has been the theater of scores of drownings and all kinds of shooting scrapes since the earliest days of the white settlers who were given shelter by Boone and Kenton on the banks of the river over 127 years ago.

Those chronicles belong to Kentucky history, but the modern adventures and tragedies on the beautiful river at that point, have never been given the publicity their interest demanded.

However, to the case in point.

Yesterday morning, Commodore Warren Easter, of Dover, known from Pittsburgh to New Orleans by rivermen as "Mayor of the Ohio River," and one of the biggest hearted fellows on earth, was in a skiff in front of Dover catching saw-logs, hoses, barrels, etc., and any old thing which the high tide in the Ohio generally brings down.

In another skiff near Easter, was another old, but well-known Dover man named John S. Worthington, familiarly called "Friday" Worthington.

To make a long story short, Easter and Worthington got into a dispute over some valuable piece of floated wood one of them had caught, and "Friday" opened the battle by leading his long drift hook on the head of the "Mayor" of the ragged Ohio. Easter, who is over six feet and a giant in strength, was knocked out by the blow and fell with his face in his boat tasting the quality of the muddy water thereto; but the "Mayor" rallied before the count was up and seizing one of his heavy oars he wedged into his little adversary "Friday" knocking him out the first round and overtaking his boat.

Worthington was stunned and sank beneath the swift yellow waters to the horror of his opponent Easter, who thought he had finished him.

But Mr. "Friday" was not born to be drowned and when it was thought he had gone to join McGinty at the bottom of the Ohio, suddenly came splashing to view a considerable distance below Easter. The latter at once made for his enemy, and the onlookers were horrified and thought they were beholding a miracle.

What was their surprise when Easter swiftly went to the assistance of Worthington, and instead of killing him, saved his life by dragging him from the brink of a watery grave, placing him in his Easter's boat, and rowed to shore and delivered him safe and sound to the astonished people who witnessed the occurrence from Dover.

As the facts give above are true and the river at a 60-foot stage, full of drift wood and the current raging eight miles an hour, the reader can realize that "the Mayor of the Ohio river" and Mr. "Friday," spent an interesting 5 minutes.

Wanted—Two girls. Apply at once at Model Laundry.

The present flood is bringing out more driftwood than the January flood.

This high water proposition was like the maiden's first proposal, it was "so sudden."

Mrs. Henry L. Wood, of Anzona, Cal., for many of this county, sister-in-law of Mr. George Wood and Mrs. Robert Owens, of this city, is very ill and not expected to live.

Mrs. Sage says she is going to give $10,000.00 to better society. A good idea. Give it to Harry Lehr if he will go and jump in the river and stay there, says The Portsmouth Blade.

There was a small but threatening fire this morning at the home of Mr. Bruce Snapp in East Forest avenue. The accident occurred from the overflowing of a kettle of coal tar boiling on the kitchen stove. The Sixth Ward Fire Company responded and saved the house from destruction, though the kitchen was badly damaged and the loss considerable.

RIPLEYITES Will Build Their Residences on Higher Ground

The good people of Ripley who have suffered from the devastating effects of two floods this year, have decided, that is, those who are below the flood line, to abandon the present site and build upon higher ground.

The old sites will be used for cow pasturage and baseball grounds.

Augusta is also badly damaged by the present flood but nothing to compare with the one in January.

COUNTY UNIT LAW

To Be Upheld By the Court of Appeals So It is Rumored and Reported

The Elizabethtown News is responsible for this statement.

"The News has very straight and reliable information which has leaked from Frankfort, that the County Unit Law, so all of its provisions, will be sustained by the Court of Appeals in an opinion which will be rendered in the several cases before it involving all of the points.

Our information is to the effect that four of the six judges have agreed on this and that it is thought that the other two will finally concur with their associates, although at present they are not fully satisfied with the constitutionality of the measure at all points.

The decision is held up on account of Judge O'Rear being in Florida on account of his health. He will return in about two weeks when the opinion will be handed down.

There have been quite a number of lawyers who have taken the position that the law is unconstitutional and as there will be about twenty-five counties effected by the decision, it will be a matter of great importance.

[Judge O'Rear returned to Frankfort Saturday from Florida and the opinion of the Court will soon be given out.—Ed.]

HISTORICAL RELIC

Powder Horn that Did Service in the War of 1812

The following interesting sketch is of local interest from the fact that the W. B. Tarleton mentioned therein is a brother of Mrs. John M. Rains of West Third street, and Mrs. R. P. Gault and Mrs. Sallie Tucker of Washington.

Mr. Tarleton has many friends in the city and country who will enjoy reading the article. It would be a valuable addition to the historical department of the Public Library of this city, where it would be properly cared for. Mr. Tarleton could deposit it with Trustees with the understanding that he is nowise relinquishing claim to the heirloom.

Marinette Co. Indianapolis News.

"W. B. Tarleton, of this city, formerly of Maysville, Ky., has in his possession a powder horn that is a relic of the Revolutionary War. He received it from his grandfather, John Baker, and it has been in the family for two generations. At the opening of the horn, where the powder was poured out, in tiny letters are engraved the lines: 'Don't tread on me for my country's sake,' and in larger letters, 'Evil to him that evil thinks.' From one end to the other is delineated the Miami river and its islands, and the crossing of Indian creek in Kentucky. Along one side of the river is the plan of the British camp, with the sites of the fort, the powder magazines, both above and underground, and the stands of the general battery of six guns and of three other batteries of three guns each.

"Across the river the American camp, with the landing of Colonel Boswell, Commander, is sketched in detail. To the right of the landing designated as that of Colosel Dudley, of the British Army, is the outline of a fort with flag flying, but the name is not given. The name, 'James W. Waddell, Tenth R. K. M., June 31, 1813,' is engraved in large letters on the lower part of the horn, and the words, 'Battle ground,' stand out in bold relief. When the horn is submerged in water the work comes out clear, with the exception of a few words where the horn has been grasped often when in use."

Mrs. Best, nee Ridgley, of the East End underwent an operation for appendicitis, this morning in the private operating rooms of Drs. Taubee.

It is a remarkable coincidence that two neighboring towns, Paris and Winchester, are each to have their Government building on the site of an old Christian Church.

There will be a box supper at the Christian Church Saturday night, March 23d. Let all the ladies bring well filled boxes. The proceeds are to be used in buying songs books for Church.

GOOD FURNITURE.

There may be housekeepers who wish to pay their money for poorly put together furniture that shows a little more for the price than better made furniture would, but we will not risk our reputation upon a purchaser becoming dissatisfied with the furniture a year or two hence. We only sell Furniture that will make friends and establish confidence. Come NOW while you have time and look over our stock of Bedroom Suites, single pieces and Dining-Room Furniture.

Mr. Shelton, of Ribolt, has moved into his property bought of B. C. Grigsby, known as the Dad Pollitt home.

The community was very much shocked and saddened by the death of Rev. O. Wiley. His death was from pneumonia. The sad feature of his death, was his taking sick and dying away from home. He was sick only about ten days. He left a wife and four children. The wife is very low with pneumonia. The remains were brought here and interred in Tollesboro Cemetery.

Personal

Mrs. George M. Clinger Enters Plea for $25,000 Damages Against C. and O. For Death of Husband

Mrs. Eliza B. Clinger, Administratrix of George M. Clinger, deceased, filed suit yesterday in the Mason Circuit Court against the C. and O. Railway Company, to recover $25,000 damages for the killing of said decedent.

Mr. Clinger was a well-known old soldier and citizen of the Fifth Ward and was struck by an engine and died later from the effects.

AN ARTIST HEN

Lays an Egg With Perfect Face of a Baby Upon It

Mr. James Wallace brought to The Ledger office yesterday a curiosity in the hen fruit line.

It was a hen egg from his henry on the hill, and upon the small end of the egg was imprinted in bas relief, the almost perfect face of a baby.

Mr. Wallace is now expecting other works of art on his eggs. He can only account for the photo on the egg by imagining that the mother of it swallowed a small kodak.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for eliquors free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
